Your Main Responsibilities

- Leading the Team: Act as the first person staff goes to when they have a problem. You'll also train new hires.
- Taxes & Compliance: Approve tax payments to the government and ensure all payroll follows Canadian laws and union rules.
- Audits & Accuracy: Double-check the data to catch mistakes and help with internal or external business audits.
- Problem Solving: Look for ways to make the payroll process faster or better.

What They Are Looking For (Requirements)

- You must have your PCP (Payroll Compliance Practitioner) designation.
- You need a college diploma or equivalent experience in accounting/payroll.
- You must be a clear communicator (written and verbal).

Experience

- Supervision: You've led or managed people before.
 - Technical Skills: You are an expert in SAP, SuccessFactors, or ServiceNow, plus standard tools like Excel.
 - Knowledge: You understand how union contracts (collective agreements) affect pay.
 - Time Management: You can handle tight deadlines without getting stressed.
 - Tenure: Usually, about 4 years of experience in payroll (including at least one year in Canada) is needed to qualify.

The Fine Print

- Pay: Your salary depends on your experience and skills.
- Deadline: Apply by March 3, 2026.
- Note on AI: They use AI to help screen resumes, but humans make the final hiring decisions.
- Accommodations: If you have a disability and need help applying, they have a specific email for support.
